“PERFECTING CRITIQUE-WRITING” WORKSHOP

Historically, critiques have played a major part in the British & FCI dog-showing world.

Moreover, exhibitors do Judges the honour of giving them an entry and most would have entered in the hope of winning a prize and subsequently reading the Judge's evaluation of their dog.

Another part critiques play, is giving those who were not present at a show some idea of the merits of the dogs that won. To the more serious exhibitors, critiques can serve as a useful guide as to where a particular Judge's priorities lie when judging their Breed, and consequently they can carefully consider the style of dog that stands the best chance of winning under that Judge, based on past critiques.

Any proficient judge should be perfectly capable of expressing their thoughts in print without necessarily having the literary skills of a Poet Laureate.

This Workshop will guide Judges in putting together a coherent and logical critique.
