Presented by

Frank Kane

*Owner of the world-renowned 'Hirontower' Kennel in the United Kingdom
Kennel Club & FCI All Breeds International Judge and acclaimed author*

Frank showed his first dog, a Cocker Spaniel, as a schoolboy and he has been involved in the dog world ever since. Whilst at University he co-owned and handled two Sealyham Terriers to their titles. In 1970 he obtained two American Cocker Spaniel bitches as a foundation for his Hirontower Kennel. One of these bitches became a Champion and both produced Champions. 13 UK Champions were produced with others overseas. The Cockers have also remained a permanent favourite and CCs were won with these also. Frank has also been heavily involved in Dachshunds, Afghans and Great Danes and has handled Champions in all of these Breeds.

First awarding challenge certificates in the UK in 1974, Frank is now approved to award CCs in 110 Breeds and judges all Groups and Best in Show in the UK and has progressed to become one of the UK's top judges. He judged Best in Show at Crufts in 2012. His services as a judge are much in demand worldwide and Frank is recognised by the international canine body, the FCI, as an All Breeds Best in Show judge.

Frank is a member of the Kennel Club Board of Directors and is Chairman of the Breed Standards Committee. He is also Chairman of one of the Dog Health Groups. Frank is author of several books on dogs, author and co-author of two earlier books on his first loves – the Cocker Spaniel and the American Cocker Spaniel – and he is a frequent contributor to the Canine Press. His book 'Judging the Gundog Breeds' is much acclaimed worldwide. For the past ten years he has been a commentator on the television and internet coverage of Crufts Dog Show.

Outside his canine interests, Frank is a keen horseman and has judged at some very prestigious Shows in the UK.
